Update Your Account

How do I update my Username for my Oracle account and CertView?

Your Oracle Account login is also your CertView login, so it is very important to keep this information updated in your Oracle Account. If your email address (which is typically the username for your Oracle Account) changes, you can update your username in your Oracle Profile.

- After updating your email address, you will need to submit a Support Request (SR) to Oracle Certification Support requesting to have your CertView account updated with your new username
- The first time you log in to CertView after the support team has updated your CertView account using your updated email address/username, you will need to authenticate your account with the new details. You will be prompted to do so
- Do not create a new Oracle Account. Rather, you should update your existing account. If you have any questions, you can contact Oracle Certification Support

The screenshot shows a modal window titled "Bruno, Welcome to Oracle PartnerNetwork (OPN)!". The message inside the window states: "Looks like you have logged with an Oracle account containing a personal email address (bruno.kaarna@oracle.com). In order to gain OPN access, you must provide your company email address on your Oracle account. Please update your Oracle profile with a company email address to proceed." At the bottom of the modal, there are three buttons: "Exit", "Update Email Address" (highlighted in green), and "Contact Partner Assistance". Above the modal, the main navigation bar of the Oracle website is visible, showing "Partner Store" and the user's name "Bruno Kaarna".
